To secure your Aloha RAFFLE TICKET BOOKS:

1. Visit Flexischools online, in the WHAT'S ON AT YOUR SCHOOL SECTION, enter Pacific Lutheran College. This will bring up the Aloha OCEANfest 2018 pre-purchasing and online payment options for the Aloha Raffle Ticket Books when you log into your account. If you don't have an account, you can still pre-purchase and/or pay for a book which you have received as a guest. If you select 'buy an additional book', your tickets will be posted to you. This is a NEW option to make it easier to purchase and pay for raffle books and is an easy way for friends and family to purchase their own raffle books.

Additionally

2. Early this week, the eldest child in your family will receive a book of Aloha Raffle Tickets to bring home. Once again, The Ink Spot Printers have kindly printed these.

As this is the primary fundraiser for our biennial OCEANfest, each family is encouraged to sell or purchase their book of tickets with more books available at the office if needed. Funds raised will see an investment in digital, interactive technology to enhance learning areas across classrooms at Pacific Lutheran College. OCEANfest 2018, is also proud to support the PLC Cambodian team with their endeavours to work alongside the Lutheran Church of Cambodia's Rainbow Hostel and Life Centre. If your family is unable to sell your full book of tickets, we ask you return the book, the stubs and any money as soon as possible to the Main Office as other families may wish to help sell the remaining books.

Terms and conditions apply to Individual Prize Packages - see prize voucher for further details. To be drawn at OCEANfest 2018 on Friday, 17 August at Pacific Lutheran College, Meridan Plains. Prize winners will be announced from stage or contacted if not at the event.

Return all Aloha Raffle Tickets Books and stubs (sold or unsold) along to the Main Office before Wednesday, 15 August 2018. Please include the correct payment. New option in 2018: visit Flexischools to pay for your book online or to pre-purchase additional books.
