Australian Defence Force (ADF) Information Sessions

Joining the ADF is not just a career decision, it is also a lifestyle decision. Consequently, it is important to do your research. Attending an information session lets you explore your options and talk to people already in the ADF. Consider attending one of the following sessions:

Brisbane - Wednesday 27 July 2016 at 6 pm - Brisbane: Defence Careers Q&A Evening at Defence Force Recruiting Brisbane. No RSVPs required. Walk ins welcome.

Townsville – Wednesday 27 July 2016 at 6 pm - Defence Careers Information Session at Defence Force Recruiting Townsville. Walk in's welcome. Book your spot at <http://events.defencejobs.gov.au/event/8TYOXM/>.

Cairns - Wednesday 27 July 2016 at 6 pm - Defence Careers Information Session at Defence Force Recruiting Cairns. Walk ins welcome. Book your spot at <http://events.defencejobs.gov.au/event/2BWY7E/>.

Brisbane – Thursday 28 July 2016 at 5.30 pm - Women in Defence Information Session at Defence Force Recruiting Brisbane. Walk ins welcome. Book your spot at <http://events.defencejobs.gov.au/event/LWB5S6/>.

See <https://www.facebook.com/DefenceJobsAustralia/events> for details of these information sessions. You can also find information sessions about the Army Reserve on this site.

Career Quiz app

The Career Quiz on the Job Outlook website at <http://joboutlook.gov.au/careerquiz.aspx> can be downloaded as a free app from the iTunes store or Google Play. The quiz is useful for people who haven't a clue about how to start exploring their career options.

Don't know where to begin your career exploration?

One way is to first think about the school subjects you have studied and liked. Then go to the Career Bullseyes on the myfuture website at <https://myfuture.edu.au/career-bullseyes>. There are 33 subject area bullseyes you can choose from. Click on one that aligns with your favourite subject. The bullseye that comes up lists the occupations or jobs related to that subject.

The occupations/jobs are positioned within four levels. As explained at the bottom of the bullseye, these indicate the level of education/training normally required to get into the job. Click on a job that looks interesting within the level of education/training you aspire to.

You will be required to 'Sign up' (if this is the first time you have used myfuture) or 'Log in' to access information about this job. The information provided includes:

- An overview of the job, the tasks usually required, similar occupations and, usually, a video about the job
- The skill level, personal requirements and knowledge areas you will need for the job
- Suggested school subjects that would be a good foundation for the job
- Courses available in each state/territory
- The 'Prospects' section provides information on employment prospects (i.e. what are your chances of getting a job), salary levels, related industries (to expand your exploration) and helpful industry websites.

Explore the information for other jobs on the bullseye. You can also explore jobs related to your other favourite subjects. If all else fails and you are none the wiser about what you might like to do in the future, make an appointment to talk with your school Guidance Counsellor/Officer.

Competitions

Buy Smart Competition

Try your hand at creating an innovative way to present a consumer issue to an audience of your choice by entering this competition. It is open to Queensland students in Years 4 – 12. You can enter individually or in a group of up to six. The closing date is 16 September 2016. Find out more at <http://www.qld.gov.au/buysmartcomp>.

Country to Canberra Leadership Competition

Each year Country to Canberra runs the Leadership Competition. This year the competition will enable at least 10 young rural women to win an all-expenses paid trip to Canberra to meet inspiring politicians and CEOs, attend exclusive events, tour Parliament, and receive a day of leadership and public speaking training from organisations like TEDxCanberra. The competition opens on 27 July and closes on 9 September 2016. Visit the website at <http://countrytocanberra.com.au/enter-the-competition/enter-the-competition> for details.

Haywire

If you're aged 16 - 22 and live outside the big cities, you can enter a story about your life and the issues affecting your community in the Heywire competition. Entries close 16 September 2016. Winners of this competition are invited to take part in the annual Heywire Regional Youth Summit in Canberra. Find out more at <http://www.abc.net.au/heywire/competition/>.

Science Trivia Challenges

Griffith University will hold these challenges as part of National Science Week. Students from Year 5 to 12 can enter. The challenges will be held on the Gold Coast and Brisbane South. If this sounds interesting, talk to your science teacher about entering the challenge. For more information, see <http://scienceonthego.griffith.edu.au/events/science-trivia-challenge-2/> for the Gold Coast challenge and <http://scienceonthego.griffith.edu.au/events/science-trivia-challenge-2-2/> for the Brisbane South challenge.

The 2016 Queensland Science Contest

Registrations are now open for this contest. To enter, you need to choose a contest category (Scientific Investigations, Engineering and Technology Projects, Classified Collections, Communicating Science, Environmental Action Projects and Mathematic Investigations). Fill out your entry form online and pay $5 per individual entry before 9 October 2016. Complete your project and send or bring your entry to the University of Queensland on Friday 14 or Saturday 15 October 2016. ## Updates from the Queensland University of Technology (QUT)

QUT offers through QTAC this year – QUT will make offers to Year 12 students at the following times for entry in semester one 2017:

- From 18 November for all additional entry courses in the Creative Industries Faculty, except B Fine Arts (Acting) and B Design (Honours) (Fashion); Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students will receive offers through the Oodgeroo Unit's Centralised Assessment Selection Program
- From 1 December for B Fine Arts (Acting)
- From 21 December (when Year 12 results are available) for applicants who are eligible for an offer (i.e. have a competitive OP/rank and meet any prerequisites) in their highest eligible preference; elite athletes
- January major offer round will still be the main offer round for the majority of QUT courses.
- February offer round will be used to fill any course vacancies.

Where bonus entry ranks (e.g. Entry bonus scheme, EAS, elite athlete bonuses) or alternative Year 12 results (e.g. IB) are available, they will be included for early offers. Otherwise students will be included in the January offer round. Don't panic if you don't get an early offer. Remember, most offers will still be made in the major offer rounds. You will be able to check your application on the QTAC applicant portal for advice about your eligibility for courses. More information at <https://www.qut.edu.au/study/undergraduate-study/do-you-advise-school-students/news-and-events> (scroll down and click on 'QTAC early offers: What student's need to know').

Additional course costs and requirements – These apply to some courses. They could be for uniforms, vaccinations, course materials, etc. See <https://www.qut.edu.au/study/fees-and-scholarships/additional-compulsory-course-costs> for 2016 costs.

Fashion illustration for beginners – Registrations are now open for the November 2016 course. The course will provide you with the foundations for creating a portfolio of fashion illustrations using industry-standard design software. Visit <https://www.qut.edu.au/study/short-courses-and-professional-development> (Click on Creative, design and performance') for more information.

Considering a double degree? – Visit the QUT website at <https://www.qut.edu.au/study/undergraduate-study/double-degrees> to read about the advantages of undertaking a double degree and how it works. There is also information on how to apply for double degrees and a list of double degree programs at QUT.

Moving to Brisbane to study? – The QUT website at <https://www.qut.edu.au/study/undergraduate-study/moving-to-brisbane-to-study> provides essential information for students moving to Brisbane to study at QUT.

Caboolture Open Day – Check out the courses offered and the campus at Caboolture on Sunday 21 August 2016. Register for Open Day to win a MacBook Air and start planning your day at <https://www.qut.edu.au/study/events/caboolture-campus-open-day>.

Future proof jobs and new jobs

An article on the Workforce Blueprint website states that while there are jobs that will be taken over by robots and automation in the future (e.g. commercial pilots, legal work, technical writing, telemarketers, accountants, retail workers and real estate sales agents), many other current jobs will continue to be in demand. These include construction managers, medical and health services managers, sales representatives, registered nurses, market research and marketing specialists, software systems developers, teachers and specialist physicians. But what about the jobs that don't exist yet? The article lists the following predicted jobs.

- Future Currency Speculator – a virtual currency market expert
- Productivity Counsellor – to provide advice on a range of topics (e.g. wellness, time management) to help employees improve their value to employers
- Microbial Balancer – needed to assess the composition of new forms of bacteria
- Crowdfunding Specialist – expert advisers to help fundraisers promote their causes
- Privacy Consultant – an expert to manage and safeguard our digital information.

You can read the full article at <http://workforceplanningtools.com.au/jobs-of-the-future-where-are-they/>.

What do I need to know when I start a job?

Occupational Information

10 things to ask a health professional

When seeking information about health science occupations, it is important to talk to people who are already in the job. These conversations can be very valuable, especially if you prepare questions in advance. The following questions are suggestions from the My Health Career website at <https://www.myhealthcareer.com.au/career-university/what-to-ask-a-health-professional>.

- What aspects of the career do you like the most or find to be the most rewarding?
- What aspects of the career do you dislike the most or find to be the most challenging?
- What aspects of the profession do students/graduates find to be the most challenging as they are going through the course or entering the workforce?
- What are the differences between how the average person perceives the profession and what you actually do on a day-to-day basis?
- What are the characteristics or personal attributes of a successful practitioner in your profession?
- Please outline a standard case and an unusual case you have come across.
- How much money could a new graduate, experienced practitioner or business owner expect to make?
- What are the different branches or areas of specialization in the profession?
- Has the profession changed over the time of your involvement?
- Looking forwards, where are the opportunities and threats in the profession?

I want to be a pilot but I'm not sure I'm suited for the job

If you are unsure about your aptitude to be a pilot, you could investigate sitting for a pilot aptitude assessment at Aviation Australia. Find out more from the Pilot Aptitude Assessment website at <http://www.aviationaustralia.aero/pilot-aptitude-testing/>.

ICT for girls

A good resource for female students interested in ICT is the Dot Diva website at <http://www.dotdiva.org/>. This site profiles women who have made a difference through computing.

Interested in being a police officer?

Visit the Queensland Police Recruiting website at <http://www.policerecruit.qld.gov.au/> to begin your exploration. Click on 'Recruit Entry' to find out about the entry requirements and how to prepare yourself for a police career. Attending a seminar is also very useful (click on 'Seminars') as you get an opportunity to ask questions about the job. The 'Academy' section of the site will give you information on the Queensland Police Service Academy.

Selected interstate tertiary institution open days

If you are thinking of applying for university studies interstate, you will need to begin your research as soon as possible. Information you should seek, includes:

- Location of the institution (does it have more than one campus?)
- Courses offered, entry prerequisites, previous ATAR cut-offs (go to the Year 12 Comparison Table at <http://www.qtac.edu.au/applications/apply-here/applying-interstate> to see a comparison between ATARs and OPs)
- Cost of accommodation and when to apply

- Travel costs
- Support for interstate students
- Scholarships and other financial support programs and schemes
- Application process (do you use a tertiary admissions centre or apply directly?)
- Application due dates
- Overseas exchange programs
- Employment programs (e.g. traineeships, work experience).

You can obtain much of this information from the websites of the institutions. Attending an open day would also be useful. The following are a selection of 2016 interstate open days:

QTAC & Tertiary Entry

Elite athlete entry bonus schemes for students applying to university

Elite athlete programs recognise sporting excellence. Successful applicants have usually competed at state, national or international level in their chosen sport. While many universities are recognised as 'Elite Athlete Friendly' institutions and offer sports scholarships, the following universities offer entry bonuses to elite athletes.

- Australian Catholic University's Elite Athlete and Performer Program
http://www.acu.edu.au/study\_at\_acu/alternative\_entry/elite\_athlete\_program
- Queensland University of Technology's Elite Athlete Special Entry Program
<https://www.qut.edu.au/study/applying/undergraduate-applications/special-entry-programs> (scroll down and click on 'Elite Athletes')
- Griffith University's Elite Athletes Program through the Griffith Sports College
<http://www.griffith.edu.au/griffith-sports-college>
- Southern Cross University's Elite Athletes and Performers Scheme
<http://scu.edu.au/futurestudents/index.php/40/>
- University of the Sunshine Coast's Elite Athlete Bonus

Fixed closing dates

Some courses have fixed closing dates. These are usually courses that require interviews, folios or auditions. In addition, some course requirements may be needed earlier than the QTAC on-time application due date of 30 September 2016. A list of most of these courses and their required closing dates or due dates can be found on pages 20 and 21 of the QTAC Guide. They are also listed for relevant courses in the 'Courses with applications through QTAC' section of the Guide, starting from page 29. Examples of early fixed closing dates:

- 15 August – Audition applications for UQ Music
- 15 August – Audition and folio application for Queensland Conservatorium courses
- 31 August – QTAC applications and JCU Application Form submissions from international students for medicine and dentistry (see pages 108 and 109 of the QTAC Guide).
- 9 September – Registration with QUT for Creative Industry courses with additional entry requirements (see page 20 of the QTAC Guide).

Fixed closing date information is also available on the QTAC website at <http://www.qtac.edu.au/key-dates---fees/fixed-closing-dates>. Note that if you don't meet the due dates, you will not be considered for the course.

How are applicants selected for courses through QTAC?

Entry to many of the courses you can apply for through QTAC is competitive. Consequently, many institutions use specific selection criteria to select students. Once institution admission rules are met (i.e. English Language Proficiency – automatic for most domestic students; age requirements – generally 18 years or completion of Year 12) selection is based on:

- meeting minimum entry requirements for the course (these may include subject prerequisites, a folio; interview or audition; tests or questionnaires; the successful completion of a course; and age), and
- merit (based on OPs and FPs or a QTAC Selection Rank).

Through the QTAC process, eligible applicants (i.e. those who meet the entry requirements) are considered in order of merit (i.e. OP or QTAC Selection Rank). In very simplistic terms, the OP or Rank of the last person to get into the course before all places are filled becomes the cut-off for that course in that offer round.

What is a QTAC Selection Rank?

A QTAC Selection Rank is:

- a number given to a qualification
- on a scale from 1 to 99 (highest/best)
- derived from a QTAC or institution specific schedule.

Your school guidance officer/counsellor can show you a schedule that compares OPs with QTAC Selection Ranks. Examples of qualifications that may be allocated a QTAC Selection Rank for a Year 12 QTAC applicant include:

- Year 12 results e.g. OP Ineligible students are allocated a QTAC Selection Rank when they apply for tertiary courses through QTAC
- Certificates III and IV, Diplomas
- Some Music, dancing and speech and drama qualifications.

Worried about missing out on updates from QTAC?

QTAC has introduced a new Desktop notification system that will enable you to receive the latest key dates and information vital to your QTAC application. To subscribe, go to the QTAC website at <http://www.qtac.edu.au/> (on both your home and school computers) and select the bell symbol in the bottom right-hand corner of the home page. Note that Desktop notifications are available on Chrome and Safari browsers only. Another plan is to connect with QTAC on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and YouTube for important news and information.

The laws of learning

The following laws of learning and remembering are oldies but goodies.

- Primacy – We tend to remember material that is presented first or early in the lesson.
- Recency – Work completed most recently is often best remembered.
- Frequency – The more often material is presented or revised the more likely it is to be remembered.
- Vividness – Material that is presented in interesting, attention-getting ways is more likely to be remembered.

This information is adapted from Study Smart, Department of Education, Queensland.

Youth Enrichment Activities

National Mathematics Summer School (NMSS)

NMSS is a two-week residential school held each January at the Australian National University for mathematically gifted and talented senior high school students. It will be held from 8 – 21 January 2017. Queensland applications close on Friday 12 August 2016. Details about NMSS can be found at <http://nmss.edu.au/>.
