

Together we grow for a better tomorrow.

Dear Parents,

This letter details suggested alternative schooling arrangements for Friday July 15th which will be the day of the funeral for Pastor Rick Zweck. Pastor Rick's funeral will be Friday July 15th 11am at Immanuel Lutheran College followed by a private burial service at 1pm.

A significant number of staff across Prep to Year 12 have expressed the desire to be at the funeral. This will mean that the college will be unable to run a normal program on the day and will run an alternative program for students across Prep to Year 5. Because of the difficulty in covering the number of staff who will be absent we would ask that where possible, families across Prep to Year 5 keep their children at home. For those families who are unable to keep children at home, the college will provide supervision for children across Prep to Year 5, where students will be mixed across classes. Because of the unusual nature of the day we will also not be having Junior Chapel.

We understand that this is a significant inconvenience for many families and appreciate your support. Families are asked to return the attached form below to the college by 8.30 am Thursday morning indicating whether their children will be attending school so that we can ensure that children are kept safe.

We are expecting that normal classes will occur across Years 6 -12 with staff being able to be covered by relief staff for these age groups. The Early Learning Centre will operate as normal.

Yours sincerely

Dr Bronwyn Dolling
Principal
