NOOSA REGIONAL GALLERY

The nationally acclaimed exhibition: The Making of Midnight Oil celebrating the 'power and the passion' of one of the world's most inspirational rock bands, Midnight Oil. Developed by Manly Art Gallery & Museum's Ross Heathcote in collaboration with Midnight Oil drummer Rob Hirst and with exhibition design by Wendy Osmond, The Making of Midnight Oil examines the band's impact on social and cultural history across a 40 year period. The exhibition showcases rare and iconic items including stage props, instruments, protest banners, hand written lyrics, photographs and posters as well as rare and exclusive footage and unreleased music. Sourced from public and private collections as well as the band's own archives. FREE ENTRY
